Dalen Resources Oil and Gas Company, A/K/A Enserch Exploration, Inc., A/K/A Fred Vinson & Associates; Dallas, Texas and Various Locations in Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 30, 1996, applicable to all workers of Dalen Resources Oil and Gas Company located in Dallas, Texas and various locations within the State of Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 21, 1996 (61 FR 6659). The worker certification was subsequently amended to include those workers whose unemployment insurance (UI) taxes were paid to Enserch Exploration, Inc. The amended notice was published in the Federal Register on April 3, 1996 (61 FR 14822).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the worker certification. New information provided by the subject firm shows that some of the workers at Dalen Resources, also known as Enserch Exploration, Inc., had their UI taxes paid to Fred Vinson & Associates. Accordingly, the Department is again amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amendment notice applicable to TA-W-31,615 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Dalen Resources Oil and Gas Company, also known as Enserch

Exploration, Inc., also known as Fred Vinson & Associates, Dallas, Texas (TA-W-31,615) and various locations within the State of Texas (TA-W-31,615A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 24, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 16th day of September 1996.

Russell T. Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Hasbro Manufacturing Services; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 17, 1996, applicable to all workers of Hasbro Manufacturing Services located in El Paso, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 16, 1996 (61 FR 24815).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that worker separations have occurred at Hasbro's production facility in Amsterdam, New York. The workers produce toys.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Hasbro Manufacturing Services adversely affected by imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include all workers at the subject firms' Hasbro Manufacturing Services.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,969 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Hasbro Manufacturing Services, El Paso, Texas (TA-31,969) and Amsterdam, New York (TA-W-31,969A) engaged in employment related to the production of toys who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 16, 1996 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 16th day of September 1996.

Russell T. Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Program Manager of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than October 7, 1996.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than October 7, 1996.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 9th day of September, 1996.

Russell Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy & Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
